Art Unit: 1712

1. The terminal disclaimer filed on November 20, 2003, disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application which would extend beyond the expiration date of 6,369,164 has been reviewed and is accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded.
2. Claims 25 to 29 and 32 to 45 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form. In claim 24, the subscript "m" is from 2 to 12, indicating that the macromonomer can have no more than 12 E groups. In claim, "n<sup>o</sup>" is defined as integer of at least 1, and is thus inclusive of monomers having more than 12 E groups. Applicants' remarks indicate that they believe the amended claim overcomes this objection, but it doesn't.
3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 24, 30 and 31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Engelbrecht et al.

This rejection relies on the rationale detailed in the previous office action. In an effort to overcome this rejection, applicants cite various documents taught on column 2 through the top of column 3 in Engelbrecht et al. and note that they do not teach the compounds as claimed. This argument is not persuasive because the documents cited by applicants are not purported by Engelbrecht et al. to teach the compounds disclosed therein. Rather, these documents refer to compounds that Engelbrecht et al. consider to be prior art compounds. As such this argument fails to establish the novelty of the claims over the prior art. In addition, the Examiner notes that applicants incorrectly characterize their claimed macromonomer as having a double bond at two ends on the top of page 3 of their remarks. The claims that are rejected by Engelbrecht et al. do not have such a requirement. Note, for instance, that claim 25, which has terminal groups on both ends, is not included in this rejection.

5. Claims 25 to 29 and 32 to 45 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
